STUDENT FINANCIAL REGULATIONS

1

The University may decide which action to take against a student who fails to pay the tuition fee.

2

Students who fail to pay the fee by the deadline will be prohibited from registering for the following semester.

3

If tuition fees and other university claims are not paid, the University reserves the right to claim all outstanding fees from the student, including pursuing legal action, even if the student has left the university.

4

New students who withdraw and senior students who withdraw or postpone their studies after two (2) weeks from the first day of the current semester's lectures are required to pay the entire semester's tuition.

Any questions regarding clarification of the aforementioned provisions and regulations should be directed to:
